DECEMBER 9, 2023

JAI SHREE KRISHNA

THANK YOU FOR BEING A PART OF OUR SPECIAL DAY,
YOUR PRESENCE AND BLESSINGS MEAN THE WORLD TO US!

1

GANESH POOJA

The ceremony begins with a prayer to Lord Ganesh for an auspicious beginning and to remove all obstacles in the couples' life.

2

KANYA AAGAMAN

Aashana makes her grand entrance to the Mandap, escorted by her uncles. An Antar Pat (a screen) is held as a tradition to welcome Aashana to the Mandap before Kunal gets a chance to see her.

3

JAI MALA

Aashana and Kunal exchange floral garlands to signify their acceptance of each other and the unification of their hearts

4

GRANTHI BANDHAN & VAR MALA

Aashana's parents give her hand to Kunal, entrusting him with her happiness from now on.

5

HASTA MILAP

Aashana's veil is tied to Kunal's scarf, signifyingthe union of their souls. The knot is a symbol of the unbreakable bond between the couple.

6

KANYA DAAN

A fire representing Agni, the God of Fire, is lit in the center of the Mandap. Vedic verses are recited to solemnize the union.

7

AGNI POOJA

A fire representing Agni, the God of Fire, is lit in the center of the Mandap. Vedic verses are recited to solemnize the union.

8

MANGAL PHERA

Aashana and Kunal circle the holy fire four times to signify their commitment to pursue the four goals of life:

- Dharma (Religious & Moral Duty)
- Artha (Wealth & Prosperity)
- Kāma (Love & Family)
- Moksha (Spiritual Englightment)

9

MANGALSUTRA & SINDOOR

Kunal adorns Aashana with the mangalsutra, a sacred necklace. He then applies sindoor, a red powder, on the center part of Aashana's hair.

10

SAPTAPADI

Aashana & Kunal take 7 steps to represent 7 vows that they pledge to take with each other:

- To love and cherish each other in sickness and in health.
- To protect their family and its interests.
- To share responsibilities of family, faith, and success.
- To share each other's joys and sorrows.
- To help each other achieve their goals, desires, and passions.
- To be faithful, honest, forgiving, and to build a trusting bond.
- To promote human good and to lessen suffering.

11

AKHAND SAUBHAGYAVATI

Married women from both sides of the family whisper messages of good luck and prosperity in Aashana's ear as a blessing.

12

KANSAR BHAKSHAN

Aashana's mother brings sweets for the couple. Aashana and Kunal offer sweets to each other four times, symbolizing their first meal together as husband and wife.

WITH BLESSINGS FROM THE
MALKAN & PAREKH FAMILIES